Arts Annaton MO

Challenge 1

You need to write a program that generates a four-digit random code and the user needs to guess the code in 10 tries or less. If any digit out of the guessed four-digit code is wrong, the computer should print out "B". If the digit is correct but at the wrong place, the computer should print "Y". If both the digit and position is correct, the computer should print "R"